SENATOR LUEDTKE: Yes.

SENATOR SAVAGE: Did I understand you correctly to say that you talked to the Governor and in the rotunda this noon and he agreed to this change.

SENATOR LUEDTKE: Yes, he reiterated to me that the only reason for the veto was the technicality, which he said in the veto. Incidentally and which he reiterated to me, and if that deficiency could be corrected on another bill that he had no objections to this.

SENATOR SAVAGE: Well, that's what I based my vote on your statement

SENATOR LUEDTKE: No, it was properly done, Senator. He should have vetoed it the way it was, because there was an inconsistency in it.

PRESIDENT: Senator Stahmer voting aye. Senator Keyes voting aye. Wait a minute...just a minute Senator Keyes. Senator Keyes voting aye. All right, Senator Mahoney voting aye. Senator Clark voting no. Thank you. Senator Kelly voting aye, Senator Kime voting aye, Senator Fowler voting aye. Senator Haasebroock voting aye. Senator Maresh voting aye. Senator Maresh switching from no to aye. Correct. The motion is to raise the Call. If you are in favor of raising the Call vote aye. If not vote no. The motion is to raise the Call. Thank you the Clerk will record.

CLERK: 28 ayes, 1 nay to Raise the Call.

PRESIDENT: The Call is Raised. Read the tally then, on the original vote.

CLERK: Voting aye 33, voting no 11, not voting 5

PRESIDENT: The bill is passed notwithstanding the objections of the Governor. Now Senator Cavanaugh an apology in that I had not intended to break into your amendment at that particular point, but in the flury of the discussion that preceeded all of that so, I was momentarily distracted. We should have dispatched your amendment and taken care of it before we got into that. However, that's done, let's go back now, Senator Cavanaugh has the floor and he's discussing this amendment. Is that #6...

CLERK: Mr. President, I want to stick some stuff in the Journal. Amendment #6.

PRESIDENT: Ha, Ha, Ha, that's pretty sneaky. Senator Cavanaugh.

SENATOR CAVANAUGH: Well, I don't have any quarrel with the Chair I'm glad to see him asserting himself, and more power to you.

PRESIDENT: Thank you.

SENATOR CAVANAUGH: Am I in closing now.

PRESIDENT: Wait a minute, you almost were. I hope you realize that they sneak these lights on sometimes pretty quick. Senator Simpson apparently has some discussion down here, let's see if he has a question for you. Stand by. Senator Simpson.
